Eduversal Document Coding System (DCS)

1. Purpose

The Eduversal Document Coding System (DCS) is established to ensure that all official Eduversal documents are:

- Clearly identifiable
- Consistently organised
- Easily traceable
- Properly version-controlled

This policy aims to support institutional memory, professional standards, and scalable documentation practices across all Eduversal Partner Schools and internal teams.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all official Eduversal documents, including but not limited to:

- Academic programmes
- Frameworks
- Policies
- Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs)
- Implementation guides
- Handbooks and toolkits

Marketing materials and informal communications are excluded (see Section 9).

3. Standard Document Code Structure

All applicable documents must follow the standard coding format below:

EDU – [Category] – [Type] – [Serial Number]

Example:

EDU–AP–PT–001

4. Code Components

4.1 Organisation Identifier

EDU

- Represents Eduversal
- Fixed and non-modifiable

4.2 Document Category Codes

Code	Category
AP	Academic Programmes
AF	Academic Frameworks
AS	Assessment Systems
PD	Professional Development
OP	Operational Procedures
PL	Policies
QA	Quality Assurance
IT	Digital Systems & EdTech
BR	Branding & Communication

Additional categories may be added when required.

4.3 Document Type Codes

Code	Document Type
PT	Peer Tutoring
HG	Handbook / Guide
FW	Framework
PLN	Plan
POL	Policy
SOP	Standard Operating Procedure
TL	Toolkit
TMP	Template
RPT	Report

4.4 Serial Number

- Three-digit numerical sequence (001–999)
- Unique within each Category + Type
- Serial numbers are not reused, even if a document is retired

5. Version Control

Each document must include a version number.
The document code remains constant; only the version number changes.

Version Format:

vX.Y

Version	Meaning
V1.0	Initial official release
V1.1	Minor revision
V2.0	Major structural update
V3.0	Complete redesign or model change

6. Mandatory Document Metadata

All coded documents must include the following information, either on the cover page or the first page:

- Document Title
- Document ID
- Version number
- Date of issue
- Prepared by (team or department)

Example:

Document ID: EDU–AP–PT–001

Version: v1.0

Date: February 2026

Prepared by: Eduversal Academic Development Team

7. Footer Standard

All pages of applicable documents should include a standard footer containing:

Eduversal © 2026 | Confidential – For Internal School Use

Document ID: EDU–AP–PT–001 | Version: v1.0 | Page X of Y

This ensures clarity, confidentiality, and professional consistency.

8. Revision and Archiving Rules

- Any revision must result in a version update
- Revised documents must include an updated date
- Previous versions must be archived and clearly marked as superseded
- Only the latest approved version may be shared with partner schools

9. Documents Exempt from Coding

The following materials do not require document codes:

- Marketing brochures
- Promotional one-pagers
- Social media content
- General informational emails

10. Compliance

All Eduversal staff and contributors involved in document creation are responsible for complying with this policy.
Non-coded or incorrectly coded documents should not be distributed as official Eduversal materials.

11. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed periodically to ensure relevance and effectiveness as Eduversal continues to expand its academic and operational frameworks.
